

Peak Design Everyday Totepack 20L

Origin
Vietnam

The Peak Design Everyday Totepack combines the clean appearance of a tote with the practicality of a backpack, making it an ideal companion for both everyday activities and photography on the go. Easily conceal the padded backpack straps within the bag, leaving you with robust padded hand carry straps. Access your belongings effortlessly through the extra-wide top entry sealed with a magnetic clasp or weatherproof zip. The Dual zip points on each side allow quick access to your camera, water bottle, or other essentials. Inside you can customize your storage with FlexFold dividers that can be arranged horizontally or vertically for optimal protection. Additional features include stretchy internal pockets for small items, dedicated sleeves for a 15" laptop and tablet, and a 100% recycled 400D weatherproof shell for ultimate protection. Enhance your carrying capacity with two stowable external cinch straps. The Everyday Totepack can be personalised with a thermal print in full colour.
